MARRIAGE OF JUDGE NICOL.

At Warrenton at noon yesterday Mrs. Florence de Cusac Nash, of that town was married to Judge O. E. Nicol, of Manassas, the wedding taking place at the home of the bride. The only two attendants were Mr. Holzman, of Washington who was the best man, and Miss Jane Forbes, of Warrenton. The marriage ceremony was first performed by Rev. Father Patrick, of the Catholic Church, of which the bride is a member, and then by Rev. Mr. Clark, of the Baptist Church, of Manassas, the groom being an active member of the latter church.

The bride was dressed in point applique, with a magnificent pearl necklace about her neck. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was given on the lawn of the bride's home, to which a large number of their intimate friends were invited. Elaborate refreshments were served by Rauscher, of Washington. The cottage was artistically decorated in white hydrangeas and ferns. Only a few relatives and the closest friends of the bride couple witnessed the ceremony.

In the afternoon Judge and Mrs. Nicol drove to Calverton, where they boarded a train for Hot Springs, at which place they will spend the week, while the judge is in attendance at the Virginia Bar Association meeting, which is being held there this week. The bride is a well-known society woman of Warrenton and has, in the ten years that she has lived there, made numerous friends. She is a native of Charleston, S. C., and belongs to an old Huguenot family. Judge Nicol is prominent throughout this section of the state, and is well and favorably known in this city where he spends most of his time. He is president of the Alexandria National Bank, one of our strong financial institutions. A host of friends here wish him abundant success and happiness. Judge and Mrs. Nicol, on their return from their wedding trip, will make their home in Manassas.

FIRST BALLOON FLIGHT TODAY.

As stated yesterday Captain Baldwin did not make his first preliminary flight in his dirigible airship yesterday afternoon as he had expected, but he did transport his balloon safely from the shop where he has been assembling, a mile across Fort Myer to the aerodrome, where it was housed, and whence he expects to make a flight this afternoon. The transporting of the machine was a bigger undertaking than flying in it will be, Captain Baldwin regards his troubles as all over now. He feels so certain that his machine will work successfully in every way and that it will easily make 23 miles an hour instead of the 20 miles specified in the contract, that he said yesterday afternoon he would probably notify the board of judges that he would be ready for the official trial today.

About 5 o'clock Captain Baldwin, with a note of triumph in his voice, announced to the crowd that had gathered in the shop and in front of it that he was about to test the machinery, and that everybody must get out of the way. The forward end, with the 20-foot-long propeller was rested on a sawhorse, and the motor started up.

Both Captain Baldwin and Mr. Curtis felt satisfied that the motor would do all that was expected, and word was given to weigh anchor and start for the ground, about a mile away. Here the tests are to be made and here Captain Baldwin expects to make his first flight this afternoon.

The parade ground of the fort was packed with people yesterday.

SLIGHT FIRE.

What would have been a dangerous fire was averted by the prompt and cool-headed action of Miss Blanche Forvis, a guest at the house of Mrs. Lee, 1111 Prince street. About 2:35 this morning a lamp exploded in a room where all the occupants, including a young baby were asleep. Neighbors across the street were awakened by shrieking cries and ran to the assistance. When they arrived they discovered that the young lady mentioned above had heroically worked and with the assistance of a young blind man, Mr. Frank Goodrich, who knew the premises, had removed the windows, and had almost subdued the flames. Many articles were damaged and Mr. Frank Goodrich was slightly burned about the arms. The fire department was not called into service.

DEBT COLLECTORS.

Quite an amusing scene was enacted on south Royal street on Sunday evening last when an agent in his earnestness to collect a debt created a great deal of excitement and attracted a large crowd. Threats of choking, black eyes, etc., finally had the effect of persuading the young man to give up his coin and the crowd dispersed without having witnessed an altercation.

DEATH OF MR. KENT.

Information was received here last evening of the death on Sunday of Mr. Wilber Reid Kent, of Newport News. Mr. Kent, while a boy, attended Potomac Academy, in this city, and later engaged in business here, remaining for a number of years. He had a large circle of friends in Alexandria, who will regret to learn of his death.

Jeffers, of Annapolis, D. C. A solo was rendered by Miss Marion Green, "Face to Face," and by Mrs. Ervin Ludwig "Flee as a Bird." The service closed with "Lead Kindly Light," by Miss Green, Mrs. Ludwig and Mr. Horace B. Ramey. The interment was at Arlington, and through the courtesy of the officers of the W. A. and Mt. V. Ry., the funeral party was conveyed in a special car direct to the gates at Arlington. The pallbearers were Messrs. M. S. Faunce, J. Frank Carlin, R. T. Strickland, F. W. POLICE COURT.

[Justice Julius Pelton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

With a dignity becoming the high office of police justice and with a determination tempered with kindness Justice Pelton heard the cases in this court this morning and disposed of them in double quick order.

The first case called was that of Susie Johnston, arrested by Officer Sampson for selling liquor without a license. She forfeited $50 collateral.

Eva Stanton, colored, arrested by Officer Sampson for disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Edward Morris and Harvey Lunsford, arrested by Chief Goods, and Officers Ferguson and Roberts, on suspicion of stealing a barrel of whiskey belonging to Joel M. Cochran & Co.; case continued 10 days.

FERRY CONTRACTS SCHEDULE.

Under the navigation laws of the United States all vessels in service over thirteen hours per day are required to carry a double crew in pilot house and engine room. The ferry steamer Luckawanna, running between this city and Washington, has been running a portion of an hour over the thirteen-hour period. Under the law she has been obliged to carry the additional men on her crew. To save this expense the schedule of the steamer has been changed somewhat, so that her day's work can be completed within the thirteen hours, and the extra men in her crew have been laid off. Some changes have also been made in the office force at both this city and Washington, so that the operating expenses of the ferry each month have been reduced considerably.

A HANDSOME STORE.

Located at the northeast corner of Pitt and Cameron streets is one of the handsomest stores in the city of Alexandria. It is the business house of Mr. John Lannon and is one of the oldest established groceries in this city. Catering to the wishes of an immense trade he has everything reasonable in one of the neatest kept stores in this city. In connection with his grocery business he conducts a feed department, which is generously patronized by the surrounding counties. Polite and courteous treatment on the part of his employees has gained for him a business second to none in this city.

CONVICTING EVIDENCE.

Edward Morris and Harvey Lunsford were before Justice Pelton this morning on suspicion of stealing a barrel of whiskey belonging to Joel M. Cochran & Co., from the Potomac yards above this city. When arraigned in the police court this morning they were non-committal, but when the chief announced that he had convicting evidence against them Justice Pelton committed them for ten days. Chief Goods and Officers Roberts and Ferguson have worked hard on this case and deserve credit, and its culmination may bring to light many acts of rascality not yet known to the police department.

EXCITEMENT ON FAIRFAX STREET.

Some excitement was caused about 10:30 last night by a negro who chased a number of white children along the lower part of Fairfax street. This has happened several times lately and the police are on the lookout for the guilty one. Officers Sampson and Beach appeared but the negro had escaped.

MOVING PICTURES.

At the Alexandria Amusement Company tonight there will be exhibited an interesting show, two new reels being used in addition to those of last night. "A Family of Cats" and "The Arabian Dagger" are the changes and are pronounced excellent.

At the Opera House the greatest wooden shoe dancers will perform and it is one of the best shows in the business.

LEE CAMP.

The monthly meeting of Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held last night. Considerable routine business was transacted and two members were elected—John H. Morgan, of the third company, Richmond Howitzers, and John H. Ballyan, Albemarle Rifles (Co. A), 19th Virginia.

THE WEATHER.

Today has been one of the most oppressive of the summer. The mercury at 3 o'clock this evening registered 94°, but the humidity in the atmosphere made the heat seem more intense.

Take Kodol whenever you feel that you need it. That is the only time you need to take Kodol. Just when you need it; then you will not be troubled with sour stomach, belching, gas on the stomach, etc. Sold by W. F. Atton & Co.

Since Bishop Brent's second declination to accept the bishopric of Washington has been received by officials of the Episcopal diocese of Washington, it is regarded by prominent churchmen in Washington as a reasonable certainty that Rev. Dr. Randolph McKim, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, of that city, will succeed Bishop Satterlee. Rev. Dr. McKim was once rector of Christ Church, this city.

Dr. J. Taber Johnson, of Washington, who is ill at his country home, near Cherrydale, Alexandria county, suffering with pleuro-pneumonia, is said to be slightly better.

AN OLD VAULT.

Located within 100 yards of the water's edge on the farm of Mr. J. H. Stamp, in Maryland, opposite this city, is a vault over 180 years old. The top has been broken and the bones and skull of at least a dozen people can be seen. It is almost hidden by underbrush and the place is seldom frequented. This vault contains what remains of the Rozier family, some of the old pioneers of Maryland, who were buried there in 1790.

HORSES AT LARGE.

A little child was run over in the northwestern part of the city on Sunday evening and seriously injured by a horse which was running at large on the streets. There is a city ordinance covering such cases but it appears to be a dead letter so far as the police are concerned. In the southeastern section of the city it is safe to say that there is hardly a day in the year in which horses and cows do not roam the streets at will, but those whose duty it is to look after such matters fail to see them. Some of the police must wear goggles.

GENERAL COMPLAINT.

Many complaints are registered against the Southern Railway engines which run up and down Henry street all day and all hours of the night with the cylinders and low pipes open making a dreadful noise which keep the residents along this thoroughfare awake. The contrast is made with the engines which run on Henry street, as they make no noise at all.

Granulated Sore Eyes Cured.

"For twenty years I suffered from a bad case of granulated sore eyes, says Martin Boyd of Henrietta, Ky. "In February, 1903, a gentleman asked me to try Chamberlain's Salve. I bought one box and used about two-thirds of it and my eyes have not given me any trouble since." This salve is for sale by W. F. Creighton and Co., and Richard Gibson.

An episode similar to that of Sunday night in Berkeley and South Norfolk, when several sailors were shot and wounded by negroes, occurred yesterday near the same locality, when Charles Campbell, of Portsmouth, was shot and wounded by a negro. After a struggle Campbell managed to reach his row boat, where he was assisted by several sailors of the navy. He was carried aboard the cruiser North Carolina, lying at the navy yard, by the sailors, and there received medical attention. The Berkeley police are congratulating themselves that they did not have a lynching Sunday night.
